Comment: Happy birthday Chris and thanks for 50 years of great music. I've had the pleasure of meeting you at various concerts over the years and once even gave you a lift to your hotel in Newcastle in the mid sixties after a gig at our local jazz club.

I had a little Austin van! Do you remember? Wishing you many more great music making years!

Comment: I don't know correct, but I believe, that I adore you and your band about 50 years. The first single I bought was: Petit fleur with the Wild cat blues.

This night I followed the concert in TV from RUST.

Again I'm fascinated.

Comment: Very best and sincere wishes Chris for your 75th birthday. I've been a fan since the 50's and still listen to your music from all the eras. I've also had the privilege of contributing to your website via Ed Jackson and Julian. I'm trying to get to the Anvil concert at Basingstoke. So, many thanks for the pleasure that you've given me over the years. Best reagrds. Chris (Robins)

Comment: Congratulations Chris-still so youthful!

I had to borrow long pants in 1955 to gain entry into the Palais de dance, Stockton in order to see you for the first time, and have been a fan ever since. On our visit to UK last year we made a point of attending your concert in July in Chelmsford and we were totally blown away. Thanks so much for many years of great jazz.
