Comment: Hi Pat! Just found your birthday Guestbook, but I hope you remember as far back as 1940/41, when you, myself & Basil Crew sat our scholarship exam in Ealing & went for "lunch" at Lyons Corner house, where we were joined by a stray dog who we named 'Fido'. Love to chat some time. Last time we spoke was when you were playing in Harrow about 1963 & kindly left tickets for my wife & I. I was 76 in Jan, so much older than you! I still play a couple of 78s on my old wind -up. Best wishes Roy

Comment: Hey Pat!

As I just said to Chris: "First heard you in 1970, at the age of 7, when I found a 78 of High Society and Papa De Da Da in an old radiogram "retired" to my bedroom. Almost the first "non classical" music I listened to - been a big fan ever since! Hope the last quarter of your first century goes well!"

Comment: Hello Pat. I knew you when you were only about 24 years of age living in Castle Bar Park, I think that's the name of the road, just off the Pittshanger Lane. Your House had a long Pathway to it from the road if I remember. I was a Cab Driver on the Ealing Broadway Taxi Rank in those days & sometimes took you home from the Ealing Broadway Stn. I now live in Australia & play the Trumpet with all sorts of Jazz bands now on the Sunshine Coast. Remember the Viaduct Hanwell, & Southall Jazz Club?.

Comment: On to the next 75 years Pat. You're still my favourite trumpeter, inspiring me to take up the horn in the late 50's and playing through the 60's. We still love and believe in the music you and Chris create with so much enthusiasm - and for us, the Big band was just sensational when you performed at the 100 Club, and in Hazlemere, Surrey last year. Keep up the great work - we still get the magical tingles racing up the back of our necks when you toot the horn. Many more Happy Birthdays!!!

Comment: Powerful, melodic, reflecting, charming, distinct.

That's your music.

First heard behind Otillies voice on many blues songs.

Very belated congratulations from Malmö Sweden but the Guestbook is still open....

Comment: Hi Pat, great music - thank you for so many years. My parents have seen the CB-Band at the end of the fifties. Me father take me in the seventies to a concert in Braunschweig. Last time I saw you was in 1998 in Wiesbaden. I hope to see you soon in this area (Frankfurt/Wiesbaden). This will be great and I could show you a picture from the first "meeting " with my parents.

See you, Ulli
