Command performance for Chris Barber - in West Germany!

The country where the Chris Barber Band has a following bordering on near-hysteria - West Germany - is the location for the band's first command performance after 23 years in the business! The West German chancellor has personally requested the band's appearance at a show in Bonn on June 25th.. (James Last was last year's attraction). The band also pay a fleeting visit to Cologne on June 12th to play a private party for a German businessman.
