

CHRIS BARBER

JAZZ & BLUES BAND

We have had drawn to our attention a 'new' publication, JAZZ TIMES. It has been successfully distributed in the North West of England for some time but is new in the sense that its content is now to be developed with wider UK coverage of jazz news. Subscribers to this newsletter are offered an annual subscription at the special rate of £7.00 (12 issues per year). Applications with cheque or P.O. to: Alice Garnett:Jazz Times:10 Perry Road:ALTRINCHAM: Cheshire:WA15 7SU.

We are also able to offer a special rate for an annual subscription to CRESCENDO INTERNATIONAL. This is a fine long-established bi-monthly which is really a musicians magazine, with the emphasis on the playing, writing and arranging work of Jazz players. The normal annual subscription is £23.00 but subscribers to this newsletter may obtain the special rate of £19.50.. Applications to: Denis Matthews:Crescendo International:194 Muswell Hill Broadway:LONDON N10 3SA.

PLEASE NOTE THAT THE RATES QUOTED IN THE ABOVE OFFERS ARE FOR U.K. SUBSCRIBERS ONLY. WRITE DIRECT TO THE RESPECTIVE PUBLISHERS FOR DETAILS OF ADDITIONAL POSTAGE NEEDED IF OUTSIDE U.K.

Chris Barber pre-records an interview with Brian Mathew on June 22nd. for transmission on BBC Radio 2's 'Late Show/Around Midnight' on the night of Wednesday June 28th..

This year's WOMAD Festival at Bracknell, Berkshire will have a considerable jazz flavour. Festival details from Karen Campbell: 0225 744044. The event is staged on the week-end of July 14/16th. and JOHN SLAUGHTER'S BLUES BAND appears on the bill. John's 'govner' Chris Barber may also take time out of his holiday to guest with John's Band.

The various Jazz events at this year's City of London Festival will incorporate an exhibition of Jazz photography by David Redfern. The exhibition, at Guildhall Yard, will be officially opened at 12. noon by Chris Barber prior to the band's lunchtime concert that day in the same area.
