Due to various local difficulties, the Band's Middle East tour - due to commence May 19th. - has been called off. The resultant re-scheduling has meant a few extra UK dates as follows:

- Thursday May 29th: The Roebuck: Harrietstone:
(On the A20 Nr. MAIDSTONE: Kent).
- Sunday June 1st : Johnson Hall: Hendford: Nr. YEOVIL
Somerset.
- Tuesday June 3rd : Recording BBC Maida Vale: for
BBC Radio 2 Brian Mathew/Around
Midnight.
- Wednesday June 4th The Tramshed: WOOLWICH
- Thursday June 4th: The Dolphin: BOTLEY: Hants
- Friday June 6th : Technical College: KINGS LYNN.

The recently issued direct-to-disc LP will shortly be back in stock. For those who were unable to obtain this album at the special price at recent concerts then the record is still available to fans (one copy per person only) at £8.75 from this address.

This direct-to-disc recording retails at nearly £11.00

The titles, recorded by the present line-up, include St. Louis Blues: Wildcat Blues: Sweet Sue: the title track, 'Come Friday': Stevedore Stomp: Alligator Hop.

We are also prepared, from time to time, to obtain from Germany LP's which are no longer available or difficult to obtain in the UK.. The double LP 'Get Rolling' is available from us at the special price of £8.50 and 'Drat That Fratle Rat' (single album) at £6.00. All prices are inclusive of post and packing.

The main Summer tour by the Band commences June 13th in Plymouth and full dates will be listed in the next newsletter.

The Pat Halcox All-Stars will again take the road for their annual 'busmans holiday from July 7th to 27th. Personnel for this year's All-Stars will be Pat, John Crocker, Vic Pitt, John McCallum, Johnny Parker, Campbell Burnap and Jim Garforth.
